

Arabic Clothing and Types of Cotton Fabrics

Cotton fabric, a natural and elegant material with a special value in Arabic clothing. Major Arabic outfits are made of cotton due to its soft texture and special qualities. Different kinds of cotton material can be used to design different day-to-day Arabic attire.

Pima cotton

This is a high quality cotton material that is found in Australia and the Peru region. Owing to its durable nature, it is highly usable for day-to-day ensembles like tunics, tops, abayas, and many more.

Seersucker cotton

This variety of cotton fabric is highly suitable for warmer weather due to its lightweight and better air circulation qualities. With this fibre, you can craft hijab, shirts, thobes, kaftans, etc. as this fabric provides comfort in abstract weather conditions.

Voile cotton

Sheer, lightweight and a slight crispness are the main features of this material. With this fabric, you can craft maxi dresses, niqab, hijab, scarves, and many more. Apart from attire, you can also use it for home furnishing.

